

Summer book camp: a comic workshop

Summer book camp: a comic workshop

July 4th-10th, 2019

Have you got the beginning of a graphic novel but need some help getting it off the ground? Is your cartooning stuck in a rut, straining to move up to another level? Put everything else aside and come spend a week at the ÉESI Angoulême to fully focus on your comics. Beginner, intermediate or professional cartoonists: this is your opportunity to spend an entire week with a master cartoonist, to focus on your own graphic novel project. Paul Karasik, recognized instructor, will be the main speaker of the workshop. This is an intensive and dynamic camp to arouse your "comic thinking" with an emphasis on storytelling.

Where ? In Angoulême, a charming city galactically known for its effervescent activity around Comics. Under the supervision of the Ministry of Culture, the ÉESI delivers a Master's degree and a PhD in Comics creation, unique in Europe. The school also hosts an International Course in Comic where young designers from around the world meet.

For this "Summer book camp", each participant will have his own workshop place and will be able to use some of the school's equipment to work on his project. The program of the week will alternate group sessions and individual work, punctuated by visits and priceless meetings with authors and professionals.

Terms of registration and fees :

- Reserved for up to 15 participants
- Minimum age of 18 at the time of registration
- The workshop is in English and French, with simultaneous translation into English, French, Spanish and Portuguese, if necessary.
- Fee: 1500 euros / person.

To pre-register: <https://www.eesi.eu/site/spip.php?article2067>

---